Instructions For the Reverse Side of This Sheet

This program results in a LBSI endorsement with Early Childhood Special Education.

- a. At least one 3 s.h. course must be taken in non-Western or Third-World cultures. A “cultural diversity” course is also required. One course MAY do both. Consult with your advisor regarding these requirements.
 - b. SPE 3201 requires previous completion of SPE 3200 OR concurrent enrollment in SPE 3200.
 - c. When choosing from the Social Sciences (Social and Behavioral) list of courses, students should NOT take any course with the following prefixes to meet these 6 hours: CMN, PHI, FMD, NTR, HSL, CTE, JOU, KSR, WST, or HSR.
-  Formal University and Department approval are a prerequisite for student teaching. There are two (2) applications: one to the University and one to the Department. A grade point average of 2.65 in all courses with a SPE prefix is required for admission to and retention in teacher education. Other department criteria are also in effect. Consult your advisor for these. Also, consult your catalog regarding University requirements.

Sixteen (16) hours in student teaching are required: an eight (8) s.h. experience in a Special Education LBS I setting and eight (8) s.h. in an Early Childhood Special Education preschool setting. For additional information, consult your advisor or the department chairperson. You must pass the General Curriculum Test, Learning Behavior Specialist I test and Early Childhood Special Education test prior to student teaching.

Credit in student teaching reflects successful completion of student teaching; the edTPA must be passed prior to licensure.
